Butterflies By Grace Defined By Faith is dedicated to helping some of the most vulnerable members of our community and fiercely committed to addressing the challenges of ending domestic violence and sexual assault through education, advocacy, and coordination of services. We are currently accepting gently used denim jeans and white T-shirts for women and children to wear on Wednesday, April 24 in protest of what happened in Italy in 1997, and raise awareness about sexual assault and its myths and misconceptions. (Case overturned & perpetrator released because the victim wore very tight jeans.) Please donate to support our efforts to educate, advocate, and coordinate services in the community. Everyone is encouraged to wear blue jeans in recognition of "Denim Day."
